

I would like to continue serving on the Educational Policies and Planning Committee. I would value the opportunity to contribute to important upcoming discussions regarding such topics as student retention, a potential university-wide academic program review, and the expansion of online offerings. As I have done previously I would hope to promote policies and procedures that empower students - encouraging them to take greater personal ownership of their educational experience.