

We are in a challenging environment for knowledge production due to external and internal factors. I am interested in working with colleagues to represent faculty perspectives, advocate for resources, and improve shared governance related to research and scholarship.